

Fall 9-1-2006

Correction to Radio Regulation: The effect of a Pro-Localism Agenda on Black Radio

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.law.wlu.edu/crsj>

Recommended Citation

Correction to Radio Regulation: The effect of a Pro-Localism Agenda on Black Radio, 13 Wash. & Lee J. Civ. Rts. & Soc. Just. 203 (2006).

Available at: <https://scholarlycommons.law.wlu.edu/crsj/vol13/iss1/12>

This Note is brought to you for free and open access by the Washington and Lee Journal of Civil Rights and Social Justice at Washington and Lee University School of Law Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Washington and Lee Journal of Civil Rights and Social Justice by an authorized editor of Washington and Lee University School of Law Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact christensena@wlu.edu.

Correction to Radio Regulation: The effect of a Pro-Localism Agenda on Black Radio

From the Board of the Journal of Civil Rights and Social Justice:

In Volume 12, Issue 2 (Spring 2006), The Journal of Civil Rights and Social Justice published Radio Regulation: The Effect of a Pro-Localism Agenda on Black Radio authored by LaVonda N. Reed-Huff, Assistant Professor at Law at Syracuse University College of Law. During the editing process a few typographical errors were made and were significant enough to warrant correction in this subsequent publication. The most significant error occurred in footnote 86; the figure should read "0.44%" as opposed to "44%."

Additionally the following corrections have been noted: on pages 136-140, the Kerner Commission is referenced as "the Commission" but should read the "commission"; on pages 136-140 "Report" should read "report"; footnotes 105, 109, 111, 113, 120, 129 reference note 102, but should reference note 104; on page 140, it should read "Washington, DC."; footnotes 155 and 156 should read "Id."; in the introductory footnote, Laura Rothstein should be referred to as "Professor"; on page 103 "African-Americans" should not be hyphenated, but should read "African Americans."

The Journal of Civil Rights and Social Justice sincerely apologizes to the author for the inaccuracies in publication.

Prepared by:
Christina Bonfanti

