FOURTH CIRCUIT REVIEW

INTRODUCTION

As our seasoned Fourth Circuit Review subscribers will notice, the format and substantive presentation of cases in this issue of the Review constitute a significant departure from that of previous years. We have broadened substantially our coverage of Fourth Circuit decisions to provide our subscribers with a more complete and thorough resource of important cases in particular areas of interest. This issue contains coverage on thirty-six Fourth Circuit cases in the areas of Constitutional Law, Evidence, Defamation and Libel, Labor and Employment, Government Benefits, Federal Tort Claims Act, Bankruptcy, and Insurance Law, among others. The effect of having such a heavy compilation of recent Fourth Circuit cases in one place is to create a convenient tool to which Fourth Circuit lawyers can refer in keeping abreast of the pertinent issues. That is our goal.
