

Spring 3-1-2005

Roger D. Groot: A Dedication

Jim Turk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.law.wlu.edu/wlucdj>

Recommended Citation

Jim Turk, Roger D. Groot: A Dedication, 17 Cap. DEF J. 285 (2005).

Available at: <https://scholarlycommons.law.wlu.edu/wlucdj/vol17/iss2/5>

This Prefatory is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School Journals at Washington & Lee University School of Law Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Capital Defense Journal by an authorized editor of Washington & Lee University School of Law Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact lawref@wlu.edu.

Jim Turk*

Roger Groot is a dear friend and colleague to so many of us for the same reasons. His love and passion for criminal law has been a blessing to all who have looked to him for inspiration, assistance and guidance with our capital cases. He was truly the “one and only” ideal choice to succeed Bill Geimer as Director of the Virginia Capital Case Clearinghouse. Roger has proven to be a wonderful mentor for all students fortunate enough to serve under his directorship. His love for his students and desire to make their service meaningful and a terrific learning experience has been his greatest contribution to VC3. He has shown his students the benefit of hard work.

Roger’s dedication and devotion to advising, assisting, and guiding lawyers throughout the entire State of Virginia has been priceless. We are extremely proud of what he has accomplished and grateful for the time that he has devoted to each of us in our cases. We are forever thankful for the spirit he has shown throughout his directorship at VC3. His character, judgment, and most importantly, friendship, have been such a positive influence on so many of our lives.

I am honored and privileged to express a very special thank you to Roger Groot for all he has done and continues to do.

* Staff attorney at the Virginia Capital Representation Resource Center in Charlottesville, Virginia. Mr. Engle is a 2001 graduate of Washington & Lee University School of Law and a former member of the Virginia Capital Case Clearinghouse.

