LAW SCHOOL NOTES

Tucker Lectures. John J. McCloy, Chairman of the Board of the Chase Manhattan Bank, delivered the annual John Randolph Tucker Lectures. The Subject of his lecture, which is being published in this issue, was "The Extracurricular Lawyer." A panel discussion was held between Arnold J. Toynbee, Visiting Scholar in Residence, and Mr. McCloy, with President Francis P. Gaines moderating. The subject of this discussion, the major portion of which is also being published in this issue, was "The Role of the Lawyer in a Changing World."

Faculty. Professor Theodore A. Smedley has resigned from the faculty in order to accept a position as Professor of Law at Vanderbilt University, where he will also be associated with the Race Relations Reporter. Robert R. Huntley accepted an invitation to join the faculty. Mr. Huntley received his LL.B., summa cum laude, from Washington and Lee in 1957, and served as Editor of the first issue of Volume XIV of the Law Review. Since graduation Mr. Huntley has been practicing with the firm of Boothe, Dudley, Koontz and Boothe of Alexandria, Virginia.

Law Review. The Law Review staff learned with regret of the resignation of Professor Smedley, who rendered the publication such large service. After a year as Assistant Editor of the first volume, Professor Smedley served as Faculty Editor for the next thirteen volumes.

The following board of editors has been named for Volume XVI, Number 1: Robert E. Stroud, Editor; Donald J. Currie, Leonard C. Greenebaum, and Owen A. Neff, Associate Editors. Mr. Stroud represented Washington and Lee at the annual meeting of the Southern Law Review Conference, where he served as chairman of a round table on staff problems.

Summer School. The Law School operated a summer session, at which courses were taught by professors McDowell, Light, and Laughlin. Beverley G. Stephenson, who was editor of the second issue of Volume XIII of the Law Review, taught a course in Conflict of Laws.

Order of the Coif. The following students have been elected to membership in the local chapter of the Order of the Coif: J. Hardin Marion, III, Robert G. McCullough, Norman C. Roettger, Jr. The chapter elected John J. McCloy to honorary membership.

Student Bar Association. The officers of the Student Bar Association for the 1958-59 academic year are: John R. Alford, President; Owen A. Neff, Vice President; Richard H. Horn, Secretary; Patrick Henry, Treasurer.
