Dear Cliff,

I write merely to say that I had a most pleasant visit with Bill Lambert. He is indeed an attractive and impressive person. It is good to know that one of his obvious talents is taking a leadership role on behalf of economic education.

I was sorry to learn from Bill that you had a small mishap while riding. I am sure this will not deter you for the future. You will recall that Mr. Gay continued to ride regularly until he was thrown in his 87th year. This still gives you a few years of good riding to look forward to.

My best to you and Lizora.

As ever,

Mr. J. Clifford Miller, Jr.
