Dear Mr. Justice Powell:

I am shortly to give a speech and thanks to the unsolicited kindness of stranger plan to quote from a memorandum you wrote for the Chamber of Commerce in the closing days of your tenure at the bar. As far as I can find the matter has gone unreported (Nothing in the New York Times Index; Vital Speeches; Reader's Guide) Could you suggest a source for a footnote? I hesitate to quote at length, but the opening sentence runs - "Under our constitutional system, the Judiciary may be the most important instrument for social, economic, and political change."

Yours faithfully

Gerald T. Dunne
Professor of Law
